Introduction

This Annual Report for the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection is respectfully presented to Chief Justice O'Connor and Justices of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

This report includes a detailed review of reimbursements made during fiscal year 2022, including the types of claims reimbursed and the restitution collected from dishonest lawyers.

The Court established the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection to restore public confidence in the legal profession. Since the establishment of the Lawyers' Fund in 1985, the Court has allocated over $25 million towards achieving this mission by reimbursing law clients who have lost money or property as a result of their lawyer's dishonest conduct.

The legal profession is the only profession that reimburses losses caused by the dishonest conduct of its members. While the overwhelming majority of Ohio lawyers observe high standards of integrity and professionalism when entrusted with law-client money or property, the dishonest acts of a few can have a negative effect on the public's image of and confidence in the legal profession as a whole.

The Board of Commissioners as well as the staff commend the Supreme Court of Ohio for its continuing and unwavering support of the mission and purpose of the Fund.

Janet Green Marbley, Esq.

Director, Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection

Chair's Comments

On behalf of the Board of Commissioners of the Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection of Ohio, I am pleased to present this report to the Supreme Court of Ohio covering the work of the Fund during FY2022.

In fiscal year 2022, the Fund received 79 new applications for reimbursement. The Board reviewed 35 claims and determined that 28 were eligible for reimbursement. The total reimbursement for eligible claims for fiscal year 2022 was $787,915.86. Five claimants received the maximum reimbursement of $100,000.

The reimbursements made in fiscal year 2022 resulted from the dishonest conduct of 18 Ohio attorneys. As in previous years, this number represents less than one tenth of one percent of all active Ohio attorneys.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Commissioners with whom I serve for their hard work and dedication to the accomplishment of the Fund's mission. These individuals volunteer their time and expertise to help improve the image of the legal profession by helping those who have been harmed by the dishonest acts of a few.

I would like to thank the staff of the Fund whose responsibilities include, but are not limited to, investigation of claims, presentation of claims to the Board, and numerous other administrative tasks. Their contribution to the Fund's mission is invaluable.

I would also like to thank the Supreme Court of Ohio for its continued support of the Fund's mission and goals, and for the confidence placed in me by allowing me to Chair this Board.

Gregory Delev, Chair

Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection, Board of Commissioners

Board members are appointed by the Supreme Court justices to three-year terms and are limited to two consecutive terms. Claims Activity

The LFCP Board of Commissioners held two virtual meetings and one hybrid meeting during fiscal year 2022. The board reviewed 35 claims, determining 28 claims eligible for reimbursement totaling $787,915.86. Five claimants received the maximum reimbursement amount of $100,000. Seventeen claimants received 100% reimbursement of their losses. The reimbursements resulted from the dishonest conduct of 11 Ohio attorneys and seven deceased attorneys who failed to complete work and/or provide refunds to their clients prior to their death.

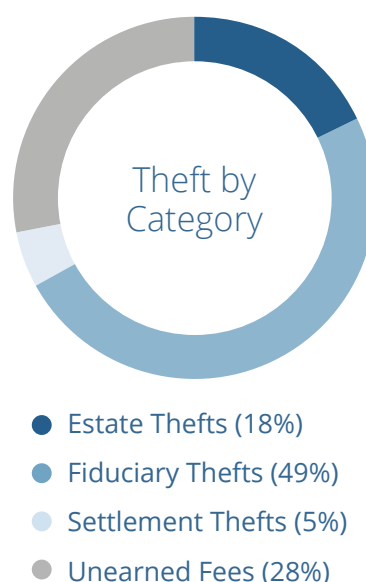

Fifteen eligible losses resulted from the failure to refund unearned fees. These claims account for the largest category of eligible claims. By contrast, only two eligible claims resulted from estate theft, four claims resulted from settlement theft, and seven claims resulted from fiduciary theft.

Public Information & Consumer Education

The Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection continues to increase its efforts to make the public aware of its existence. The Fund maintains a webpage at supremecourt.ohio.gov. The page contains questions and answers about the fund and the types of claims reimbursed. An application for reimbursement is available on the webpage as well.

With the assistance of the Court's Office of Public Information, the fund prepares public announcements following all LFCP board meetings containing information about claims determined by the board to be eligible for reimbursement. The announcements include a listing, by county, of attorneys involved in LFCP claims. The announcements are distributed statewide to news media outlets and other organizations.

The LFCP publishes a pamphlet containing a brief description of the purpose of the fund along with answers to basic questions about the types of claims reimbursed. The pamphlet, which is now available in Spanish and English, is distributed to individuals requesting information about the LFCP and/or applications for reimbursement.

The pamphlet, as well as the fund's application for reimbursement, is also distributed statewide to bar associations.

In collaboration with the Court's Commission on Professionalism, the LFCP publishes "A Consumer's Practical Guide to Managing a Relationship with a Lawyer." The guide provides general information about the lawyer-client relationship, including how to find a lawyer, what to expect after hiring a lawyer, and how to avoid problems in the lawyer-client relationship. The consumer guide is distributed statewide to bar associations, public libraries, law firms, and other professional and governmental offices.
